

WINTER

Learning Missions

Color or cross out each box as you complete the learning mission!

Fold a piece of paper in half. Write heads on one side, and tails on the other. Flip a coin 20 times and tally the results. Which had more / less?	Write about your favorite part of winter break.	If you were a super hero, what super powers would you have? Draw and write about your super powers.	There were some squares on a piece of paper. There were 28 corners or vertices. How many squares were there?
Write a silly story using the word snow, as many times as you can.	Create as many pieces of art as you would like. Display your art and invite your family to an art show.	If you could get a new pet, what would you get? Write your family a letter and explain why the family should get a new pet.	Use a cotton swab and paint, to paint your name. Then paint the names of your family members.
Choose a story for someone to read to you. After reading, practice retelling the story from the beginning.	Go on a "round hunt". Search your home and make a list of objects that are round.	Get creative and use materials from around the house to build a snowman!	Create your own directed drawing of anything you choose. Be the teacher and show someone how to make the picture.
Invite your family to help build an obstacle course in the house. Then challenge everyone to try it!	Draw or paint three snowflake patterns.	With the help of your family, make your own restaurant. Create a menu to order food from.	Grab your favorite books and read to your pets or stuffed animals.
